chairman, all members being residents $1 50 of Chicago.

The committee aims to have this library representative of the best literature of all nations. Its object is not only to guide and influence children, but to furnish parents with suggestions for the selection and arrangement of home libraries. It will at the same time be an exhibit for publishers of all over the world.

Clever Umbrella Thieves.

On a recent rainy Sunday two nicelooking, well-mannered men stationed themselves in the vestibule of an English church and relieved all who en-tered of their umbrellas, saying that the vicar disliked having wet umbrellas carried into the church. When the services ended the people looked for the two men, but they had quietly ster away—and also the umbrellas, v waiting for the benediction.
